2. Report of the Director

2.1. Update on new Health Unit staff

Jacqueline Hart: New Manager for Supporting Families

Jacqueline Hart is assuming the management of the Strengthening Families Team. Jacqueline is a UWO graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing as well as a Bachelor of Education. She brings with her thirty years of public health experience working in a variety of settings and most recently working with families and community agencies to promote family health services. She has contributed to a number of local, provincial, and national initiatives promoting the health of families. Her knowledge base includes clinical services related to STI's, family planning, tuberculosis and outbreak management. She is well known for her ability to form partnerships with other teams, agencies, professionals and the community. Jacqueline is highly familiar with legislation related to Health Units and is excited to be part of the management team that will be implementing the new Ontario Public Health Standards.

Shelly-Ann Hall: Epidemiologist

Shelly-Ann graduated from York University in 1997 with a B.Sc. Later she went on to study another Bachelors degree at York University in Health Studies with a minor in Health Informatics. She also graduated in 2003 from University of London England (London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine) in Master of Science in Epidemiology.

Since 2003, Shelly-Ann has been providing her services, as an epidemiologist in disease surveillance, in Jamaica for approximately 2.7 million people. We are very pleased to have Shelly-Ann as part of our team, as she embarks in her new role on Feb. 2, 2009.
