

Social Housing Directives

Policy No. 2013-26

SECTION	SUBJECT	PAGE 1 OF 1
Special Needs Housing	Review of Special Needs Eligibility	January 2013

PURPOSE:

Special Needs eligibility continues to be reviewed every 12 months or more frequently as determined by the Special Needs Housing Administrator.

HOUSING SERVICES ACT:

The periodic basis referred to in that subsection is once every 12-month period after the household began to occupy Special Needs Housing; and

The other times referred to in that subsection are such other times as the Special Needs Housing Administrator consider appropriate (367/11 s. 80 & s. 81).

POLICY:

Special Needs eligibility will be reviewed every 12 months, with the anniversary date of Special Needs tenancy by the Special Needs Housing Administrator.

Special Needs Housing Administrator shall not require information and documents if:

1. Satisfied that the household is unable to provide them.
2. Satisfied that information or documents already provided are adequate to determine continued Special Needs.
3. The Special Priority applicant may be endangered in the attainment of documents.

APPROVED BY:

Dave Overboe

Director, Social and Property Services Department